

MAJOR AUTO - HAEMOTHERAPY

This is a revolutionary procedure wherein blood is drawn from a vein, and goes into a closed vacuum bottle, the same is enriched with direct bubbling of 100 micrograms per ml of ozone and reintroduced back into the patient. An extremely small anticoagulant dose is used. From autoimmune disorders to malignancies and post chemotherapy, MAHT is very useful in many conditions. IAOS has the finest MAHT kits that are being currently exported world over.
